Aman hearing this was forthwith astonished, not being able to bear the countenance of the king and the queen. In vain he fell on his knees before queen Esther. Harbona, one of the officers in waiting, said to the king, Behold, the gibbet which he hath prepared for Mardochai, who spoke for the king, stands in Aman s house, fifty cubits high. The king said, Hang him upon it. So Aman was hanged upon the gibbet which he had prepared for Mardochai. The same day the king raised Mardochai to the rank in his kingdom which had been held by Aman, and letters were sent to revoke the former letters. And when the danger to the Jews was over, Mardochai and Esther wrote letters that the 14th and 15 th of the month Adar should be kept with solemn honour for a perpetual...
