When the discovery sought by a bill can only be assistant to the relief prayed, a ground of demurrer to the relief will 1 also extend to the discovery; but if the discovery may have a further purpose, the plaintiff may be entitled to it, though he has no title to relief. In considering, therefore, these several grounds of demurrer to relief, such as may, and such as cannot, extend to discovery likewise, will be distinguished. I. The general objects of the jurisdiction of a court of equity have been noticed in a former page; and from thence it may be collected, that the jurisdiction, when it assumes a power of decision, is to be exercised, i, where the principles of law, by which the ordinary courts are guided, give a right, but the powers of those courts are...
