Unquestionably, this is actually the very best job by any publisher. It really is basic but unexpected situations within the 50 % from the book. I discovered this book from my dad and i advised this publication to discover.

General Accounting Office, 2002 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)52921059 Subject: Financial statements -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Governors meeting further emphasizes the importance of enhanced disclosure and discussion of the implications of all of its retirement-related obligations. Further, the reduction in future pension obligations would increase the Services options for dealing with its postretirement health obligations and other financial challenges. For these reasons, we believe that the Service needs to enhance its disclosure of its postretirement health obligations in its financial reports. Importantly, a number of major employers have provided disclosures relating to these types of obligations for several years. In addition, the consolidated financial statements of the U. S. government include extensive disclosures of these obligations on a government-wide basis. Without sufficient disclosure of these obligations in the Services financial statements or the related footnotes, neither Congress nor stakeholders can have adequate information needed to make appropriate decisions related to these issues. We continue to believe that, at a minimum, these obligations should be discussed in the notes to the financial statements. -----We are sending copies of this report to the Chairman and Ranking Minority Member of the Senate Committee on Governmental Affairs, Chairman and Ranking Minority Member of the House Committee on Government Reform, the Services Postmaster General Chief Executive Officer, the Services Chief Financial Officer, the Chairman of the Postal Rate Commission, and other interested parties. We will also make copies available to others on request. In addition, the report will be available at no charge on the GAO Web site at http: www. gao. gov.
