Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Footsteps of the Saints is presented by a prologue inspired by W. T. Conner, whose enduring legacy lies in his thirty-nine year teaching career at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, as described by Peter Lumpkins of peterlumkins.com, and Peter Lumpkin states that Dr. Conner distinguished himself as preeminent Southern Baptist theologian during the 1930 s and 1940 s and that this was because he was more aligned with biblical teachings than other systematic approaches to God s Word, such as Calvinism. Some systems lie heavily on passages of Scripture whose interpretations are uncertain, but Dr. Conner s approach was based on some very clear teachings of the Apostle Paul. The prologue follows the Apostle Paul as he tells how the grace of god is the theme that runs throughout the Old Testament and on through the New. He relates the story of God s call to Abraham in the midst of an ancient and pagan land: God said, I want you to get out of this country and I will show you where I want you to go and do what I want you to do (rephrased). God promised him a new land and generations of descendants as numerous as the sands of the sea, who would receive it. When the Apostle had finished the story, he is then heard to say, These things are an allegory. He, then, gave the meaning of the allegory, the two women, two covenants, two mountains, and two cities. Bondage to the law would serve to provide lessons for learning and preparing the way to a higher and a better way of life. The prophet Jeremiah spoke of the Lord as saying, Behold,...
