Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Woodward s Record of Horticulture: For 1866 The public have an undoubted right to inquire for what particular purpose a book is written. The preface is supposed to give the desired answer, therefore we here give our prospectus. We propose to publish in January of each year a volume in which we shall endeavor to show the actual state of Horticulture at that time, the principle Horticultural events of the preceding year, and any new developments that may have been discovered in regard to the more common fruits and flowers in cultivation. We do not propose to record the advent of every new fruit or flower, but only to give their merits or demerits after they are fully known. We shall endeavor to gather information from all part of the country, and keep our readers informed as to which particular fruits and flowers are best suited for particular locations. If horticulturists in general will give us their assistance, and communicate any facts in their possession relative to Horticultural products, it will very materially assists us in making this annual a guide for the inexperienced as will as for those who possess a general knowledge of the subject. The present volume has been rather hastily written, owing to the fact that it was near the close of the year before we determined to publish it. With this explanation we offer this, the first number of our Record of Horticulture. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
