Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A List of Books on the History of Science: Supplement December, 1916 The List of Books on the History of Science, which was issued in 1911, recorded the books available in January of that year, numbering some 1500 titles. Since then, however, a large amount of material on this subject has been received and not a few have been catalogued from the Gerritsen and Senn collections. This addition has been large enough to make it worth while is issue a Supplement to the previous list, and it is hereby offered as the twelfth of the Library s bibliographic publications. It contains nearly 800 titles. In 1915 a List of Books on the History of Industry and Industrial Arts, complaining about 3300 titles, was issued as the eleventh publication. These three list bring together a large and important class of books the titles of which are widely scattered through the classed catalogue and not readily available there as a class. The present list has the same scope and character as the first; it covers the social, physical, natural and medical Sciences, while their technical applications are covered in the list on the history of industry. It deals with the history of the sciences; it does not deal with the history of movements or activities. The history of economic, for instance, is included here, while economic history is included in the List of Books 011 the History of Industry. In the preface to the earlier volume quotations were made from writings of some historians of science. To this it seems filtering to add, as apropos of the times, two Statements by two well known scientists, the one...
