Art: A Life in Art (Paperback)

By MR Bill Phelan

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 203 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Since he was a small child Bill knew that all he really wanted to do in this world was to be an artist. The earliest serious influence in his art education was Ms. Parker in the 3rd grade. She inculcated that art must be somehow different and original, like a Christmas card drawn only with X s in different colored pencils. He attended the George Walter Vincent Smith Art Museum Saturday morning art class before graduating highschool in Ludlow Massachusetts. He learned to appreciate classical academic art of the the museum as well as Chinese sculpture, ceramics, armor and funriture. During the same period he enjoyed various so called art activities in the high school art class in Ludlow such as drawing, tempera painting, box making, etc. He was the only male in an all female class. Since Ludlow high school was on a double shift he worked as an emblem artist at the Nixon Emblem Co. in Indian Orchard, Massachusetts in the afternoon. There he perfected the ability to draw letters and all sorts of things by...
