An unexpected repetition of the same the next day reduced him yet lower; but I still thought that it was only weakness, and that time and patience, with God s blessing, would restore him. But on the following morning the watchers spoke to me a little after four o clock, and said there was a change in him for the worse. I arose, and found his eyes fixed. I spoke to him, but he gave me no answer. I took his hand, but he returned no sign of recognition. We succeeded in giving him what seemed best suited to restore him, but he was evidently sinking fast. I offered a prayer by his bedside, and then hastened to the sick chamber of my dear partner to inform her, that, if she had any more petitions to offer for the beloved child, she must...
