The Lake Geneva Chronicles: A Brief Philosophical Journey (Paperback)

By Beverly Horvath Dimare

Blue Dolphin Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 2nd Revised edition. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Bela Kornitzer, the renowned Hungarian-American journalist and historian, once very perceptively wrote that: the essence of democracy is reflected in the tolerant democratic attitude that prevails in the typical American family, and in the moral strength handed down by their forebears. These wholesome words helped inspire the essential hypothesis attendant throughout The Lake Geneva Chronicles.Although the story is a work of fiction, the basic story line is based very much on the history of the author s paternal grandparents who immigrated to America during the early part of the 20th century from central Europe, and in time settled within a lovely community in Wisconsin.Attempting to persuasively illustrate the philosophy which generally promotes a fuller and more meaningful life - and which, incidentally, has been wholeheartedly embraced by five generations of Mrs. DiMare s family - The Lake Geneva Chronicles is a loving tribute to the sacredness of family, the rare beauty of genuine friendship, the love of God and country, the utter baseness of child abuse in any form, and the profound importance that...
