O. , 2007. LC Number: KF27 . S673 2007 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)191048133 Subject: Medicine -- Information technology -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 11 We want to use the technology to make our office visit minutes more meaningful, not to strip additional minutes off of an office visit that is already too short. Medicare and private sector health insurers are complicit in keeping us in a paper-based system. Pri-vate insurances and Medicare constantly expect us to deliver more care for less money. For one of my insurers, global fee for prenatal care is only 1, 200, which includes the delivery, the care, and 60 days postpartum care. Medicare is slated to cut physician payment by 10 percent in 2008, and 40 percent over the next eight years. As the rates continue to be cut from all angles, it can be difficult for many practices to justify an investment in health information tech-nology. I am a firm believer in the enormous potential of health...
