Doc: Revelations of a Reluctant Yank Studying Medicine Among the Irish (Paperback)

By Eb McKee

eBook Bakery, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Prodded by his formidable Aunt Bertha to become a doctor, college-grad, Gene McKee, agrees to explore Europe in search of a welcoming medical school. Seizing the opportunity will provide relief from the tedium and stench of a temporary job as a fish cutter in Rhode Island. The frustrations and apparent futility of the quest, extending through Ireland, England, Scotland, and France, test his resolve. But just before the clock s final tick, an unlikely acceptance to the College of Surgeons in Dublin opens the door to a future not exactly of his own choosing. McKee s rite-of-passage travelogue is replete with anecdotes of medical school and Dublin life during the late 1950 s and early 60 s. Recounted with self-deprecating humor and considerable honesty, we witness McKee s transformation from a reluctant medical student to a competent physician. Enjoyably peppered with historical tidbits, amorous entanglements, and imaginative riffs, reading Doc and seeing Ireland with its rich cast of characters through a young Irish-American s eyes, will surely bring smiles to the faces of readers and for some...
